

Rule for Softball Games interrupted due to inclement weather

If rain interrupts a game and a game is called, it will be considered a complete game IF three and ½ innings have been completed and the home team is in the lead. (Four innings with the visiting team in the lead)